BEAVERTON POLICE ARREST SEX ABUSE

SUSPECT AND SEEK ADDITIONAL

INFORMATION

On October 27, the Beaverton Police Department took Carl Edward Nordbeck (11-21-1980) into custody on multiple sex abuse charges involving children.

During the time period of these offenses, Nordbeck was employed at the Salvation Army church (services department) in Northeast Portland and as a security guard at the Vancouver Mall.

Nordbeck has been formally charged for these offenses through the Washington County District Attorney's Office. Detectives with the Beaverton Police Department are requesting that anyone with information regarding Nordbeck or has information pertaining additional victims, please contact Detective Lenahan at 503-526-2515.
